Summer Reading for Grades 4-6

4th Grade Summer Reading Assignment

Students are required to read at least two books this summer. The Lemonade War will be mandatory. Your child will take an AR test for the two books the first or second day of school. They may choose the 2nd book from the list below.

After your child completes reading the books of their choice, please have them decorate a POSTER BOARD representing the book and be prepared to share it with the class the second week of school.

Please choose your 2nd book from this list. Make sure your child hasn't already read the books they choose, so they will be able to test on these books.
