

Rotary Club of Pascagoula

“He Profits Most Who Serves Best”

CRITERIA

The goal of the Rotary Club of Pascagoula’s scholarship program is to help qualified, deserving high school seniors continue their education by granting scholarships based on a reasonable balance of merit and need. All high school seniors who reside in Pascagoula or who are enrolled in Pascagoula High School or Resurrection Catholic High School shall be eligible, with preference given to those who reside in Pascagoula. The Scholarship Selection Committee shall consider the following information for each applicant: financial need, high school grade point average of a 3.0 or higher, ACT score(s), activities and accomplishments, the value to the individual and community of selected programs of study, and scholarships that have already been awarded. Failure to submit a complete application, including items 1-3 on the second page of this application, may result in your application being excluded from consideration.

Applications and attachments should be submitted to the Financial Aid Office, MGCCC-JC, P. O. Box 100, Gautier, Mississippi 39553 by FRIDAY, APRIL 8, 2022.
